

Gary Nakamoto, Chairman

Gary Nakamoto is Chairman of Base Technologies, Inc., a professional services firm that specializes in information technology, outsourcing, and consulting.

Base Technologies, Inc. has received numerous industry awards for customer service and has been recognized for growth, being designated as a Top 100 IT federal government contractor. Clients include the U.S. Department of Homeland Security, National Institutes of Health, Department of Transportation, Department of Defense, Department of Labor, and the Department of Treasury.

Most recently, Mr. Nakamoto worked on Governor McDonnell's Transition team primarily focusing on information technology across the Commonwealth. Mr. Nakamoto was named in October 2007 by Washingtonian Magazine as one of the 150 most influential people in Washington D.C. He also served as a member of the United States Presidential Delegation for the U.S. National Day at the World Exposition in Aichi, Japan.

Mr. Nakamoto is active in the community serving on the boards for American Automobile Association, Northern Virginia Technology Council, Inova Health Systems Foundation, George Mason University School of Management and Ohio University. He is the past chairman of the Fairfax County Chamber of Commerce and Wolftrap National Park for the Performing Arts. Additionally, Mr. Nakamoto works with the Vietnam Veterans Memorial Foundation. He also supports youth-focused charities and programs.

Mr. Nakamoto is a graduate of Ohio University and resides with his wife Kelly and son Matthew, in Great Falls, Virginia.