

FAIRFAX COUNTY, VIRGINIA

Information Resources

The Fairfax County Economic Development Authority (FCEDA) has numerous resources available to assist those looking for information on Fairfax County. Publications range from an annual overview of the FCEDA's work to a guide on doing business in the county. All publications are free, and most are available in PDF format on the FCEDA's Web site at www.FairfaxCountyEDA.org. Contact the FCEDA at 703-790-0600 or info@fceda.org for printed copies.

Annual Report

Detailed summary of FCEDA's activity and Fairfax County's business growth during the previous year—including economic indicators, marketing results and real estate trends. Print and PDF versions available.

Area Business Reports

Demographic information and other statistics summarized for nine geographic submarkets in Fairfax County. Print and PDF versions available. Areas covered include:

- Annandale–Bailey's Crossroads–Seven Corners
- Centreville–Chantilly–Dulles
- Fairfax Center/Oakton–Clifton
- Herndon (Town)
- Merrifield
- Reston
- Richmond Highway Corridor–Southeast Fairfax
- Springfield–Interstate 95 Corridor
- Tysons Corner

Business Ventures

Quarterly newsletter covering news of interest to small, minority- and woman-owned businesses. Print and PDF versions available.

Doing Business in Fairfax County

A comprehensive guide to starting, financing and growing a business in the county. Print and PDF versions available.

E-Bird

A three-times-per-week digest of the top Fairfax County stories from national and local media outlets. Available by e-mail subscription, the E-Bird is also posted on the FCEDA Web site.

Fact Sheets

Brief overviews, providing information on the following topics (compiled by the FCEDA and other organizations). Print and PDF versions available.

- African-American-owned Firms
- American Indian and Alaska Native-owned Firms
- Asian- and Subcontinental Asian-owned Firms
- Associations
- Business Diversity: Minority- and Woman-owned Firms
- Chambers of Commerce
- Colleges and Universities
- Executive Office Suites
- Fairfax County Summary
- Federal Procurement
- Federal Procurement for Minority and Woman-owned Businesses
- Foreign-owned Firms
- GMU Technology Transfer
- Headquarters Offices
- Hispanic/Latino-owned Firms
- Information Resources
- Largest Employers
- Life Sciences Resources
- Native Hawaiian and Pacific Islander-owned Firms
- Primary and Secondary Education in Fairfax County
- Resources for Technology Ventures
- Taxes
- Technology Companies
- Venture Capital
- Veteran-owned Firms
- Wages
- Woman-owned Firms
- Workforce Services

Fairfax County Profile

Summarizes topics of interest to businesses. Print and PDF versions available. Sections include:

- Fairfax County Overview
- Business Community
- Technology Industry
- Demographics
- Education
- Quality of Life
- Transportation

Fairfax Leader

Quarterly newsletter of Fairfax County business news, including recent jobs announcements, county statistics, profiles of local firms and FCEDA programs and services. Print and PDF versions available.

Overview Brochure

Describes aspects that make Fairfax County a prime location for domestic and international businesses—including proximity to Washington, D.C., fiscal standing, business environment, Washington Dulles International Airport, labor force, educational system and quality of life. Print and PDF versions available.

Real Estate Report

Provides data on construction activity, leasing activity and rates, and vacancy rates for the county's commercial real estate market and its major submarkets. Published twice a year. Print and PDF versions available.

Small Business Datebook

Calendar of events geared to entrepreneurs and small, minority- and woman-owned businesses. Web version only.

October 2011

FAIRFAX COUNTY
ECONOMIC DEVELOPMENT AUTHORITY