

Tizoc S. Loza

Corporate Program Manager
Mentor-Protégé, SBIR & HBCU/MIs Programs
SEBP / Government Relations

Tizoc S. Loza is the Corporate Program Manager for the Mentor-Protégé, Small Business Innovation Research (SBIR), and Historically Black Colleges and Universities/Minority Institutions (HBCU/MIs) Programs. He reports to the Corporate Director, Socio-Economic Business Programs/Government Relations at Northrop Grumman Corporation. Mr. Loza has corporate oversight responsibility for all Mentor-Protégé, SBIR, and HBCU/MI programs, including the review and oversight of new Mentor-Protégé programs, corporate strategy development, and training. Mr. Loza also serves as Northrop Grumman's Mentor-Protégé, SBIR, and HBCU/MI customer liaison that insures consistent and efficient program management enterprise-wide. In addition, he develops and implements strategies to increase Northrop Grumman's involvement of SBIR's, HBCU/MI's in the Mentor-Protégé program and other subcontracting opportunities.

Mr. Loza earned his Bachelors Degree in Financial Management and International Business from California State University at Long Beach. In addition, he received the Government Contract Management Certification from University of California at Los Angeles, is a certified Six Sigma Green Belt, and is currently enrolled in a MBA program with emphasis in Supply Chain.