

Sean O'Connell is a partner with PBGH. Originally from Clinton, Maryland, Sean graduated magna cum laude from Bridgewater College. The College has since presented him with their "Outstanding Young Alumnus" Award. Sean works with numerous professional service firms, and heads up our firm's Health Care Consulting Team. He has specialized in corporate and individual income tax planning, as well as personal financial planning and wealth building. His peers recognize him as a "Super CPA" in Virginia. He has been designated as a Personal Financial Specialist by the American Institute of CPA's. A PFS is a CPA who has demonstrated experience in personal financial planning activities, and has completed a comprehensive examination that tests risk management, investment planning, retirement planning, estate planning, and personal financial planning skills. Sean serves on the board of directors of the Northern Chapter of the Virginia Society of CPAs (VSCPA). He is also a board member of the VSCPA Educational Foundation. He has been an adjunct Professor of Accounting at the University of Mary Washington, and has also taught courses for the VSCPA and at Germanna Community College. He is a frequent public speaker. Sean is a member of the Fairfax Rotary Club. He and his family reside in Alexandria.