

A. Jeffrey Parks is the founder and President of PBI. Jeff served a 20 year career in the US Coast Guard and finished as the Director of Training and Workforce Performance Improvement as well as the Service's Leadership Training Manager. He is also certified in Strategic Change Management (CSM), was a Certified Performance Technologist (CPT), and is an Adjunct Instructor for the Federal Executive Institute (FEI), George Mason University (GMU), and the American Strategic Management Institute

(ASMI)/Performance Institute (PI). He is passionate about helping organizations, teams, and individuals achieve excellence. Jeff shares his expertise freely and helps clients as a trainer, executive coach, and organizational coach.