

Mr Richard A. Stevens - Senior Partner, FW Stephens

Richard Stephens is chairman of the central London based FW Stephens financial consulting group which embraces a long-established Chartered Accountancy practice, Independent Financial Advisers, Fund Management and a Technology and Innovation consultancy.

He is past-chairman of the BritishAmerican Business Inc. Transatlantic Business Development Forum and a Past President of the International Association of Practising Accountants.

Richard has been actively involved in advising a range of clients over the years, but has particular expertise and experience in serving the Technology and Regulated Financial Services sectors, especially where there is an international dimension to the client's affairs.